

Anders Maiqvist leaves his role as CFO

Pamica Group AB's CFO Anders Maiqvist has resigned and will assist the group in the spring of 2025 to ensure continuity within the financial function. The recruitment process for a new CFO will begin immediately and Jan-Olof Svensson will, in addition to his role as CEO, take on the role as acting interim CFO from today.

"Anders has done an excellent job during his time at Pamica and I am pleased that he is completing a number of ongoing projects and contributing to the work on upcoming quarterly reports. In addition, we have a strong finance department. We are now starting the recruitment of a replacement for the CFO role with a person who has potential to take on operational responsibilities over time," comments Jan-Olof Svensson.

About Pamica Group

Pamica Group acquires small and medium-sized companies, develops them together with successful entrepreneurs, makes them long-term successful and thereby creates value and prosperity. The group has an eternal ownership horizon with high growth ambitions - through organic growth, add-on acquisitions and by increasing the number of platform companies.

We were created by over 200 Swedish entrepreneurs who built companies themselves and who with their broad network, industrial competence and business acumen contribute to our companies' development. Together with management and employees, we create what we call Great Companies. The group, with headquarters in Halmstad, Sweden, includes 18 companies.
